Parish To Honor Him

Rev. Fr. Gaffney Marks 25th Anniversary Sunday

Both secular and informal programs will be held on Sunday in celebration of Rev. Fr. J. Richard Gaffney's 25 years in the Catholic priesthood.

A solemn high jubilee mass, dinner, open house at the rectory and evening program at the Memorial building will highlight the day's events.

The affair, in recognition of Fr. Gaffney's service, has been under the direction of his assistant, Fr. William Appell and the St. Paul's parish councilmen: Patrick J. Dean, John McNicol, Earl Deville, John Gonda and Frank Schmid.

Fr. Gaffney, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gaffney, was born and reared in the downtown Cleveland district where he was a member of St. Columbkille's parish and attended the church school. He served as an altar boy at St. Columbkille's and attended high school and junior college at St. Ignace.

For preparatory schooling he attended St. Bernard's seminary. He studied theology at St. Mary's seminary in Cleveland and spent his last year of training at St. Mary's in Cincinnati.

Ordained In Cleveland

He was ordained in St. John's, downtown Cleveland cathedral, on June 14, 1924, by the late Bishop Joseph Schrembs.

Fr. Gaffney's first appointment was in the St. Augustine parish on W. Fourteenth st. in Cleveland. After less than a year he was sent for a short term to be the assistant in St. Columbkille's parish in Youngstown.

He also served as assistant pastor in St. Edward's in Cleveland, St. Joseph's, Alliance, and St. Paul's, Euclid. On Aug. 22, 1934, he was sent for his first pastorate to St. Vincent de Paul's in Vienna and remained there until Jan. 18, 1943, when he came to St. Paul's.

He was the first pastor for St. Vincent de Paul's after its founding as a mission by the late Rev. Fr. Michael Coan of St. Rose's parish in Girard.

Fr. Gaffney also serves as a prosynodal judge on the matrimonial court of Youngstown diocese.

At St. Paul's he serves a parish of approximately 600 families in Salem and the surrounding areas. He directs a staff which includes the assistant pastor, Fr. Appell, the five teachers of St. Paul's school in eight grades and other members of the parish staff.

Since Fr. Gaffney has been in Salem the mortgage on the church has been cleared. Payment was completed in December.

MORE DONATIONS FOR DONNA ARRIVE

The generosity of Salem and other northeastern Ohio people is a wonderful thing.

The response to the Donna Saunders hospital fund drive has exceeded the fondest hopes of its sponsors. This morning 106 letters from the northern part of the state were received by The News, containing $215 in new contributions.

The accompanying notes are much the same as those listed in yesterday's story—most of them coming from housewives, children and fathers in the common walk of life.

From Salem, the fund received a $50 gift from the Moose lodge and $31.50 contributed by 32 men in Department 12 of the Deming plant.

Last night the Salem Amvets post began its house-to-house "bucket brigade" and reported outstanding success. Covering only a small portion of the city from 6:30 to 9 p. m., the Amvets collected $186. They will continue their campaign tonight.

Amvets members are asked to report to the post rooms at 6 p. m. to take part in the drive.

Excluding any money collected by the Amvets and Junior Chamber of Commerce, the fund has reached the $900 mark. It is expected to reach $1,500 when the drive is completed.

The coin collection jars, distributed by the Amvets Tuesday, will be left out until Friday, June 17.

Any letters received at City hospital are being turned over to the Saunders family unopened.

Per Capita Cost Of Primary Was $1.06

It cost the City of Salem, the Columbiana county election board estimated today, approximately $1,412.12 to hold the May 3 primary election.

The election board notified city council Tuesday that approximately that amount would be withheld from city funds collected in 1949.

At that rate, figures show, it cost the city about $1.06 per vote in the primaries. A total of 1320 votes was cast in Salem.

REVEAL ATOMIC SHIPMENT MADE TO RUSSIANS

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—The FBI disclosed yesterday the same type of equipment used by the U. S. Atomic Energy commission was shipped to Russia from the United States two years ago.

Two other shipments were blocked in 1948 and 1949, the FBI report said.

This was brought out in the espionage trial of Judith Coplon.

Archibald Palmer, Miss Coplon's attorney, told reporters he intends to read the full text of 34 long reports relating to internal security matters and to suspected espionage agents.

A long FBI report discussing possible violations of the foreign agents registration act by Amtorg, a official Soviet trading agency, also went into evidence.

The report dated Jan. 27, said Amtorg had bought and shipped to Russia, without authorization, atomic research instruments. The report said the shipment, including radiation detection equipment, Geiger counters and other instruments connected with atomic research, sailed from New York Aug. 27, 1947 and actually reached Russia.

Two other attempts to send similar equipment to Russia were said to have been thwarted.

The report said Amtorg appeared to have an "exact knowledge" of the type of equipment being purchased by the Atomic Energy commission.

Krauss Plays In London For Queen

"To London to London to visit the Queen" became a reality for Sam Krauss, former Salem resident, who plays first trumpet in the Philadelphia Symphony orchestra. The orchestra is on a good tour this spring and summer with engagements in England and Scotland.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Krauss of Euclid st., received a letter telling that the orchestra members met the Queen of England on their first night in London when they played a concert for the Victoria league. All the ambassadors were there.

As Krauss said "the party at the American embassy was something." Everyone in full dress and formally announced to the hosts, American Ambassador and Mrs. Douglas.

The orchestra formed a semicircle and the Queen passed around greeting them.

After being on the move through England, the orchestra is now settled in London.

Krauss talks about the Shakespearean county "Stratford-on-Avon," saw his home, gardens of original trees and types of flowers of the Bard's time. Also visited was Glasgow, Edinburgh and York, where they saw an old Roman wall from the year 400. It is in fine shape, kept that way by occasional repair, he added.

He says it rains frequently, for perhaps 10 minutes at a time, then the sun shines. But the fog has been absent so far.

In line with his trumpet artistry, Krauss also has a hobby of collecting trumpets of various tonal effects. He writes that he has purchased an English Besson, a very high pitched instrument, and he plans to buy a post horn and a hunting horn.

The orchestra will play in Youngstown May 1, 1950.

LUDWIG WILL GIVE DIPLOMAS

High School Principal To Present Graduates At Commencement

Presentation of diplomas for the 85th annual Salem High school commencement exercises Thursday evening will be performed by Principal Beman G. Ludwig.

This came about through the suggestion of G. P. Lozier, president of the board of education, who stated in the recent board meeting that the students should receive their diplomas from the principal who has worked with them over the four years. Previously the act had been performed by the president of the board.

Receiving diplomas in the exercises, which start at 8:15 tomorrow night in the school auditorium, will be 151 seniors, including 80 girls, 65 boys and six veterans.

Orchestra To Play

The school orchestra will sound the processional and the seniors will march into the auditorium to their assigned seats. The invocation will be given by Rev. George C. Beebe, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Student Speakers
Jerry Miller, class president, will give the welcome, to be followed by a piano duo by Shirley Baldinger and Ruth Winkler. ## WILL AWAIT TIP ON MOVE; MALLERY SAYS

Sheriff Withdraws Men, Believes Escapees Are Not In This Area

The search for the two escaped convicts from the Moundsville, W. Va., penitentiary, believed to have been in the Salem area Monday night and Tuesday, has slackened today.

The concentrated man hunt of the district east of Salem, around Millville, was carried out Tuesday by state highway patrolmen, auxiliaries, Columbiana county sheriff's office and local police.

Corp. Edward Mallery of the Salem barracks, state patrol, said today, "We've cut down on the search and will have to wait until we get another tip. Possibly someone will spot the men when they move."

Not Seen Since

The dangerous convicts are believed to have been the pair which stopped at the home of Frank Fish of the S. Egypt road at 7 p. m. Monday and forced Mrs. Fish to give them food and clothing. They made off through a wooded area, east of the house and have not been sighted since.

They answered the description of the escaped convicts.

The 50-man posse searched the rough country in that area Monday night and all day Tuesday, with no success. A state patrol airplane assisted in the hunt. Patrolmen from barracks throughout northern Ohio were called in to help.

Today Sheriff Howard Clark said he has withdrawn his force from the manhunt. "I don't think there is anything there," he explained.

Members of the state patrol are still combing back roads today, but the effort is not as intense as Tuesday.

ASSESSMENTS DUE FOR STREET WORK

Property owners who owe assessments for sewer and street improvements made last year have two more weeks to make cash payments before the balances are placed on the tax duplicate for collection, city council announced Tuesday night.

At the request of City Auditor Karl Webster, council has postponed certification of the amounts due until owners have more time to pay at city hall.

Streets involved include: Vine st., from Third to 5th; Wilson st., from Sharp to Pine and Liberty st.

Sanitary sewer jobs involved include: Maple st., from Fair to Adams; Arch st. from Sharp to the corporation limits; Spring st. and W. Ninth st. from N. Ellsworth ave. west.

WITH 2 CONVICTS AROUND, HUBBY MADE TO STAY IN

Tuesday was an odd day and night in Salem, Ohio.

There was a manhunt on east of town. Two convicts were reported in the area—and brother, the lady of the house was in no mood for foolishness.

When Hubby started for the door last night about eight—headed for that favorite spot downtown—he was halted abruptly.

"You're not leaving me in this house alone tonight!" the wife screamed.

Yes, that's the way it was all over the city. The women, frankly, were scared to death and they displayed it in a number of ways all day and night.

Calls into the Salem News office last night proved the point. One woman inquired, "Have they caught those men yet? I'm all alone out here in the country and if they haven't gotten them I'm going in town to stay with friends."

Another anxious caller, feminine also, asked hopefully, "They've given up the search, haven't they? I'm sure those men have left this area now."

From all neighborhoods yesterday afternoon, as rumors spread over town, calls besieged the News and police offices. One man instructed a woman in his neighborhood to call all the homes in her vicinity and warn residents to keep their children indoors and keep doors locked.

A group of Amvets, conducting a "bucket brigade" canvass to raise money for little Donna Marie Saunders, experienced trouble rousing people throughout the city early in the evening.

Amvets said people were reluctant to answer the door, carefully surveying them through the curtains before they responded to the knocks or doorbells. They were generous, however, when they did answer.

The streets were unusually empty last night.

As frightened as most people were, there were some about who were having the time of their lives. The children in the Millville and Egypt road area were obviously enjoying the whole thing.

Kids lined the country roads yesterday afternoon and in the early evening as the unusual number of state patrol, sheriff patrol and other police units sped up and down the roads.

There may have been convicts around, but to the youngsters it was a detective yarn come to life right in front of them.

Yes, Salem was jumpy Tuesday. And poor Hubby—he wasn't allowed off the home lot. That's one method of keeping the men at home.

Grooming The Horses

The biggest coming event in Washington is scheduled to make its arrival just before congress adjourns.

It will be the Truman administration's blueprint for a planned economy—a combination of such tentative proposals as those put forth by representative Spence last February and by a group of 12 Democratic senators in May.

The plain purpose of these proposals and the official administration proposal still to come is to tighten the political hold on all economic affairs of the United States. In the name of promoting maximum employment and purchasing power, the federal government will bid for the privilege of making all principal decisions governing industry, business and income earners. It will set up arbitrary standards of performance to be met by private enterprise—or else.

A general idea of the scope of such a plan is found in the Spence bill: "It is the purpose of this act to utilize the powers and resources of the federal government to assist in overcoming certain adverse conditions resulting in part from World War II, to promote the flow of commerce among the several states and with foreign nations, to remove the foregoing obstacles to national security, free competitive enterprise and the general welfare etc."

What follows thereafter is a detailed plan for the political seizure of every prerogative of private enterprise, or at least a mandatory sharing of responsibility for private enterprise with political authority. It is, in short, a detailed plan for statism. The politicians are grooming their official horses, in anticipation of a call to ride to the rescue of the people. Leaving nothing to chance, they will give the call themselves, as soon as the horses are ready.

Secret Information

The net effect of all the judicial, legislative and administrative reviews of apparent bobbles in the handling of secret information during and after the war may be to convince the public that there is no such thing as a real secret about any matter of international interest.

There are only blank spaces in information about what some other country may be doing. These will be filled in ultimately by one means or another. In some cases, the means will be additional research. In others, it may be an accidental discovery. And in some it may be the traditional method of spying. But spying is the slow, laborious way to find out what's going on.

As far as absolute secrets are concerned, there aren't any, not even about atomic fission. The only advantage the United States has had in that respect has been its ability to call on scientists from many countries and to apply what they and other scientists knew to the production and control of fissionable materials. Atomic security, like security in the fields of aviation, guided missiles, submarine detection and war production, is less a matter of secrecy than it is of exploitation and determination.

Caught Short Again

A New York Times dispatch reports some 300,000 Russia Communists apparently purged for being caught short in the latest party-line switch. Such a report can neither be proved or disproved. The great killings and purgings of the Russian police state are never talked about officially.

But certain things can be spotted, such as the disappearance of officials who were previously prominent, grapevine reports from persons inside the country, and changes in the party line.

Thus, the latest purge would almost certainly be to rid Russia of Communists who supported Andrei Zhdanov, who "died" suddenly and mysteriously a year ago next August. These people acted in good faith; they thought Zhdanov had Stalin's favor—and he apparently did. But that was temporary. Stalin can change his mind. Other Communists, it is assumed, can't be trusted to change their minds. So they must be purged—killed outright, sent away to death camps, or barred from party favor, like the Dixiecrats here at home. It saves many a sleepless night for the anxious men in the Kremlin to know that their enemies are in a good, safe place.

Doctors Speak For Themselves

Restrictions on the future public-speaking activities of Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association, by the trustees of the association are in keeping with the professional character of that organization.

Members of the medical profession inevitably speak for themselves in their relations with the public they serve. The fact that Dr. Fishbein has assumed the role of such a spokesman for many years has been embarrassing to many doctors.

Granting his ability and integrity, Dr. Fishbein's professional critics have been acutely aware of the danger of letting one man's opinions become the collective opinion of their association. Doctors are of many minds on controversial issues. They cherish their right to dissent, as all professionals should cherish it for the sake of professional progress. In other words, there is no place for a spokesman in an organization of individuals.

To say this takes nothing away from Dr. Fishbein. But it adds something to the stature and ideals of the American Medical Association, whose trustees have acknowledged belatedly that there is a vast difference between their professional association and non-professional organizations which find it expedient to let one man do the talking in the absence of other men with equal ability to express themselves.

A young wife's most anxious moment, says a writer, is when she bakes her first cake. And her husband's, when he takes a slice.

WHILE there is augur, of a slowing down of lively conditions, with some block, limitation or postponement, yet the situation may not prove entirely hopeless or arrest the wheels of progress already established on a promising basis, with reasonable and logical foundation for growth, expansion and financial stability. Such encouraging situations could be easily muddled or disintegrated by some reckless, forced or militant action, alienating the expected support. Maintain calm and await normal developments.

Those whose birthday it is, may find themselves well established on a firm and expanding basis, with promise of aid from influential sources, although there may be flashes of disappointment, postponement or other frustration or limitation. This should be philosophically evaluated, with sound analysis of enduring factors and underlying stability. Any attempts to force the issue, to batter down opposition, or show other forms of impatience, bad temper or impetuosity, could bring about complications as well as personal danger. Keep calm and work for long-range results.

A child born on this day may be hot-headed, impetuous and disposed to force and fury, although its future prospects and enduring returns could grow by cool management.

The only time some drivers worry about losing control of a car is when they are a couple of installments behind.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Endless Search For New Drugs

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

THE search for new drugs is endless. Medical chemists are constantly attempting to devise new and more effective remedies for every kind of illness. Recently, a drug known as dibutoline, which seems to have a powerful, soothing effect on smooth muscle tissue of the type which makes up the stomach and bowel, has been discovered. There are various disorders in which muscles of the intestinal tract tighten up excessively and go into spasm, thus causing periodic attacks of pain. One type of muscle spasm occurs in the condition known as spastic colitis, in which attacks of diarrhea alternate with constipation and there is marked pain.

When dibutoline was given to a group of patients suffering from spastic colitis, complete relief of pain occurred in one to 10 minutes. The relief lasted in some cases for several weeks and, in others, for from two to three hours. No other treatment was employed while the dibutoline was used.

Pain in Abdomen
There is also a disorder known as diverticulitis, in which pouches form on the large intestine. In this disorder also, pain in the abdomen occurs. Patients with diverticulitis, treated with dibutoline, were kept free from pain. The drug, however, had to be administered from three to eight times daily.

Dibutoline was also found useful in the treatment of ulcerative colitis, in which there is inflammation of the bowel, together with the formation of ulcers. The drug assisted in controlling the abdominal discomfort and lessening of the frequency of bowel movements.

Spasm of Muscle

The muscle between the stomach and bowel is known as the pyloric muscle. Spasm of this muscle may occur where there is an ulcer of the first part of the bowel, called a duodenal ulcer. When a spasm of this type occurs, pain develops. Complete relief of this type of pain was also produced with the dibutoline.

It would appear that this preparation is effective in relieving pains produced by spasm of the bowel muscle. The drug must be given by injection under the skin. So far, dibutoline has been used in relatively few cases, but when it becomes available for general use, it should prove a great value in a variety of intestinal disorders.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

C.E.F.: I am on the verge of a nervous breakdown. For the past two years my head shakes. What would you suggest?

Answer: Examination should be made by a neurologist to determine the cause of your trouble. It may be due to the beginning of what is known as Parkinson's disease or paralysis agitans.

Until the cause is found, proper treatment cannot be suggested.

CAPITAL LIFE NOT GAY ONE FOR ALL:
THIS SECRETARY HAS HARD SCHEDULE

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON—(UP)—Folks around the country have the idea that the capital is one gay old place. Ride to work in a chauffeur-driven car. Two hours for lunch, cocktails at 4. Three-day week-ends aboard yachts with small boys running up from the galley every few minutes with more cocktails.

That may be the life for some. But not for William E. Warne, assistant Secretary of Interior.

Bill, a former newspaperman, lives the same simple life he always has. He takes a bus to work from his home in Alexandria, Va., gulps his lunch in half an hour and works like mad until 6 p. m.—and more often than not, later than that.

If work isn't piled too high on Saturday, he gets a breather and does just what his neighbors do. He strips to shorts and "T" shirt, oils up the lawn mower and cuts his own grass. At night, he'd rather go home to his wife, three kids and a good book than table-hop at the hot spots.

During a normal work day, he settles a dozen or so matters of major policy over the phone, holds eight or 10 conferences, signs a heap of mail, maybe makes a speech or two and goes to a committee hearing that interests his department.

Hard work is second nature to Bill Warne. When he was eight, he moved with his folks from his birthplace in Indiana to a farm in the Imperial valley of California. Each morning he milked 17 cows before he legged it a couple of miles to a country school house. After the walk back, those 17 cows had to be milked again. When he was a senior in high school he eliminated the walk to town by driving the school bus—for $10 a month.

Worked Way Through

At the University of California he worked his way by washing windows, firing furnaces and finally as correspondent for a string of newspapers.

The day after he received his sheepskin from college he returned to the farm for a "much needed rest."

"The next morning," he said, "Dad dragged me out of the feathers at 4 in the morning. I spent the day loading bales of hay onto a wagon."

Bill decided that enough was enough of this manual labor stuff. So he went to Brawley, Calif.,

Unemployment Gains

Throughout U. S. in May

WASHINGTON, June 8—Unemployment jumped 273,000 in May to a new post war peak of 3,289,000.

The census bureau, reporting this today, commented that "ordinarily unemployment drops between April and May and the increase this year was, therefore, contrary to seasonal expectations."

It said one reason the number of job seekers—outside of farming—rose faster than the number of job opportunities was because school age youths turned out for summer or post graduation work.

Because of the seasonal upswing in farming, employment moved up, climbing 275,000 in May to a total of 88,694,000—slightly above the same point last year.

Postpone Decision
in Solly Hart Case

COLUMBUS, June 8—(UP)—

The state pardon and parole commission has postponed, pending further investigation, the case of Solly Hart, notorious Cleveland hoodlum sentenced to life for the slaying of Roy Marino, Youngstown.

The commission heard Hart's case last January and continued it for further investigation. The board considered freedom for Hart again last week but announced today that it failed to reach a decision.

Hart was sentenced to life in the penitentiary for the 1937 slaying of Marino 36 hours before the former convict was to tell a statewide grand jury how he got out of the pen.

Hart's first degree sentence was reduced to second degree by former Gov. Thomas J. Herbert just before he left office.

Lawrence Hackenberf, vice chairman of the parole commission, said he thought the group would reach a decision "within a couple of weeks."

Marino had been released from the pen by former Gov. George White Jan. 12, 1935, a few minutes before he left office. Marino served only 14 months of a 20-year to life term for the robbery of the Louisville branch of the George D. Harter bank of Canton. The grand jury was investigating parole graft when Marino was found along the highway in Columbiana county with 18 slugs in his body.

In other action the commission granted 49 paroles and continued 65 for further investigation.

Crops Escape As Mercury Tumbles

Frost nipped at vegetable crops in northeast Ohio early today, but fruit and corn apparently escaped any serious damage.
The mercury tumbled to a low of 30 degrees here and at East Liverpool. Yesterday's high was 62.
L. H. Copeland, district observer, said he believed most crops in the county escaped harm. It was the second reading of 30 degrees for this date in his 57 years of weather records. The other was in 1930.

ment specifications and requirements. Now the boxes are available. He added that many people gauche a farm by the condition of the box in front of the farm.

Help Substitutes

Substitute mail carriers are used on the routes occasionally and at this time clearly-marked names are vitally important for if the carrier cannot find a name he has no other choice but to bring the mail back to the office.

"It is a requirement of the Department that the boxes provided by patrons of rural routes shall be so placed that they may be conveniently served by the carriers without dismounting from their autos. They shall be located on the right-hand side of the road in the direction of travel of the carriers in all cases where the traffic conditions are such that it would be dangerous for the carriers to drive to the left in order to reach the boxes, or in driving there it would be a violation of traffic laws or regulations. Rural carriers have no special rights or privileges in the use of roads.
They must follow the laws and regulations that apply to other drivers," added Beardmore.

What May Be Wrong

Beardmore listed a number of ways that the boxes may not conform to requirements. Included are: not an approved box; no signal on box; no door on box; approach to box should be filled and properly graded and kept unobstructed at all times; box too far from road (four feet is suggested); box should be raised or lowered; should be on right-hand side of road as traveled by carrier; box should face road; box should not carry assigned number; box not waterproof; box should be leveled and post firmly planted; securely fasten box to support; new box needed; box should be painted either white or aluminum and name inscribed on box in neat block letters about one inch in height.

church in charge of Rev. Paul McLaughlin, with burial in the

FR. GAFFNEY

ber, 1948. The church hopes to enlarge the school in the next few years, at which time an auditorium will be built.

Fr. Gaffney, whose humor, as well as inspirational guidance, has brought him the love of all in the parish, says his duties keep him busy almost 24 hours a day on some occasions. He compares himself to a fireman—always on call—as are all clergymen.

Secular Recognition

The high mass will be held at 11 a. m. Sunday when Fr. Gaffney's priesthood relatives and friends will be the officers of this mass. Rev. Fr. John Powers, pastor of St. Ann's in Cleveland, will preach the sermon of congratulation.

The church will be colorfully decorated for the occasion and choirs will present special selections prepared for the ceremonies in Fr. Gaffney's honor.

A dinner at the Memorial building for visiting priests and out-town friends will follow the services. Women of the parish will prepare and serve the meal. Open house will be held at the rectory on Sunday afternoon for out-town friends.

Evening Program

The celebration will be terminated in a program at 8 p. m. in the Memorial building. The theme of the program is the story of priests' travel from the places of their birth and childhood—

"The Lord said to Abraham: Go forth out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and out of thy father's house, and come into the land which I shall show thee."
Genesis-12, 1.

Fr. Appell is chairman of the complete program and will give the welcome to members of the parish and visitors. Frank Schmid will serve as toastmaster as church groups offer their felicitations. The 40 students in the seventh and eighth grades of St.
Paul's school will present the 25-minute religious story, "Love's Tribute."

The Rt. Rev. Francis J. Lavery, pastor of St. Aloysius church in East Liverpool, will give the greetings of the clergy in the diocese.

The Vocaleers, Salem women's chorus, will sing, "The Green Cathedral," to be followed by John Gonda who will speak for the parishioners.

Fr. Gaffney will respond and give a few remarks on his 25 years in the priesthood. The Vocaleers will close the program with the selection, "When Day Is Done."

As the first event in the recognition of Fr. Gaffney's service, the children of St. Paul's school presented a musical program on May 18 with pupils from all grades participating. They gave him a gold pyx case for sick calls.

Mrs. William D. Brooks, Jr., of Topeka, Kan., formerly of Salem, who sustained an eye injury in an accident, is reported to be improving.

Mothers Club Ends Year With Delightful Party

Mrs. Lester Bateman was pledged to keep the "candle of learning lighted in the high calling of motherhood" when she was inducted as president of the Progressive Mothers club at the annual installation dinner party Tuesday evening in the Shady Lawn tea room, Youngstown.

Members of the club formed a circle around her and pledged an "unbroken circle" during the rites conducted by Mrs. William Greene, retiring president, who when she turned over the gavel explained, "you will have a great many headaches, and joys, too." "Friendships" was the past president's reward, she said.

Other officers for the 1949-50 season are: Vice president, Mrs. Albert Kitzmann; secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Pinkerton; treasurer, Mrs. Allen Chandler.

Mrs. Greene welcomed the members, their mothers and guests to this party, which marked the close of a perfect year.

Hear Book Review

Mrs. Kitzmann, new program chairman, introduced Mrs. Guy E. Byers, honorary member of the club, who reviewed the book, "Cheaper by The Dozen." This story filled with wit and wisdom, was written by Frank Gilbreth and his sister, Christine Gilbreth Carey, who were two of a family of 12, and related to their home life.

Mrs. Richard Albright, retiring program chairman, presented the club's gift to Mrs. Greene, in appreciation of her work, and gifts to Mrs. Ray L. Dean, Mrs. D. A. Reichert and Mrs. Richard Wilson, past presidents.

The charmingly-appointed tables were set in a green and red motif. Green candles were in crystal candelabra and the lovely plastic favors were tied with red and green. A cardinal design adorned the place cards. Bouquets of white peonies and white daisies centered the tables. Chairbacks were covered with crepe paper in the predominating tones, making a colorful setting.

Junior High Group Entertains Fathers

Members of the newly organized Presbyterian Junior High Westminster Fellowship entertained their fathers at a special party meeting Sunday evening in the church. There were 31 present.

Mrs. Edward Landaker sponsors the group. Glens Lee Harris was in charge of the worship program, conducted by Ann Sandrock and Carol McQuilkin.

Singers from the Chancel choir of the church sang "The Old Rugged Cross." Mrs. Howard Schaefer accompanied them.

Miss Harris entertained with an exhibition of baton twirling, and Bruce Snyder played a piano solo.

Jocelyn Snyder and Carol McDekker sang "I Shall Not Pass This Way Again" as their duet number.

The audience enjoyed a monologue by Miss Middeker entitled, "Boy Crazy."

The program was arranged by Mrs. Carl McQuilkin.

The fathers were introduced and Rev. Harold Ogden gave a few welcoming remarks. He also told about the Junior High Westminster conference at Camp Zion this summer. Eight will go from the group the week of June 13-19 and the same number from June 20-26.

Mrs. Paul Risbeck arranged the lunch, assisted by Mrs. McQuilkin.

Miss McPherson Wed To Harmon Handwork

McPherson of Lisbon, and Harmon Handwork of Salem, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Perry Handwork of North Jackson, who were married Sunday afternoon at the bride's home, will reside on N. Ellsworth ave., after an extended honeymoon trip through the west.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white marquisette gown and carried a bouquet of red roses. The couple were attended by Mrs. Frederick Popovich of Youngstown, sister of the groom, and Homer McPherson, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Popovich wore a lovely blue gown and carried yellow roses.

Rev. Carl W. Bormuth of Louisville read the double ring ceremony. Miss Bernice Klingaman of Allentown, Pa., formerly of Lisbon, vocalist, and Mrs. Homer McPherson, pianist, provided the pre-nuptial music.

A reception followed. The bride has been employed at the Law's feed mill, Lisbon. Her husband is an employee of the Deming Co.

One hundred and thirty relatives and friends came to offer congratulations. They were from Salem, Winona, Damascus, Columbus and Springfield, Ia.

A white linen cloth covered the refreshment table, graced by white candles in crystal and a decorated wedding cake. Mrs. Roscoe Stanley of Winona poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bonfert, Mrs. Karl Bonfert and Mrs. Mildred Bonfert and son, James, were in Cleveland Saturday to attend the wedding of Ruth Eileen Mulholland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mulholland, and Mello J. Mitchell, which was solemnized at St. Joseph's church there.

Blame Lazy Habits of Skin Care For Girl's Complexion Troubles

This young girl's campaign against blackheads begins with scrubbing, for which she uses a soft complexion brush and rich lather.

By ALICIA HART

Many of those blackheads which polka dot young faces can be blamed upon lazy habits of skin care.

Case in point is the lick-and-promise method of washing faces which so many girls' mothers report.

If that describes your method of scrubbing, take warning. Fail to wash an oily skin—that is the type of skin which is indeed a push-over for blackheads—and you are pretty certain to have dirt-laden pores. Oil on the skin provides an unfailing attraction for dirt.

Smith-Brethold Vows Exchanged

Sue Ella Church Smith of Lisbon and Edward Brethold of Terrace, Pa., were married in a double ring ceremony at 2:45 p. m. Sunday by Rev. Malcolm Harrison, pastor of the Church of Christ at McKeesport, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Church of Lisbon are the bride's parents, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brethold of Terrace.

The bride, gowned in blue lace, complemented her costume with a large wide-brimmed hat in fluffy pink. She carried pink rosebuds. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Armond Tustin of Lisbon.

Reynold Lewis of Pittsburgh, brother-in-law of Brethold, was his best man.

Following a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the couple will be at home at 4723 Bayard st., Pittsburgh.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

John R. Hickman, 29, soldier, and Sara Jane Donahue, 25, Wellsville.

Donald G. Denkhous, 21, salesman, Lisbon, and Margaret Shearer, 18, Elkton.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Smith of Massillon visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Cone of E. Fifth st., enroute to Sunbright, Tenn., where they will be the guests of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hagedorn of West Alexander, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hagedorn, N. Ellsworth ave.

Fred Lippiatt, student at Cleveland Bible school, is home for the summer.

To Sponsor Church Softball League

The Salem Ministerial association will sponsor a church softball league for grade school children up to Junior High age for the next two months. Games will be played in the afternoons at Centennial and West Side parks.

The league is open to both girls and boys and a church may have more than one team.

Rev. Harold Ogden, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will direct the project.

Churches will furnish baseball caps for the players and also supply umpires for the games. The association will furnish balls and bats.

Children interested may register in their respective churches until June 20. First games will be played the week of that date.

Plans for the league were made at the Monday session of the association in the public library assembly room.

Thomas Crothers, supervisor of music in the Salem schools, attended the session in the interest of Christmas music. Sunday, Dec. 11, was suggested for the date of the annual Christmas program at the High school.

Plans were also considered for the presentation of Handel's Messiah on Christmas night by a union church choir.

Officers will be elected at the September meeting in the library. Meetings will be discontinued during the summer.

The condition of James Taylor of Winona, who has been seriously ill of a tetanus infection in the City hospital, was reported to be improved today. He the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clara Taylor.

Rev. Willis Miller of Winona has returned from an evangelistic trip to Oklahoma.

Here's How Pvt. Hill Came To Be "Fire-eater Delbert"

LONDON, June 8—(AP)—How did Pvt. Delbert Hill of the U. S. Air force become Donna Delbert, the winsome lady fire eater of the British music halls?

With a routine he learned in army shows, London theater folk said today.

The airforce claims Hill, a 36-year-old Philadelphian, deserted in July, 1945. He faces a general court martial Friday at the Burtonwood air base.

Hill was arrested two months ago in a Newcastle hotel between shows at a local theater. He was in women's dress, with a shoulder length hairdo and plucked eyebrows.

"Donna Delbert, demon fire eater," was his theater billing.

Show people in London who helped stage entertainment for the forces during the war recall that hill appeared as a fire eater in 1943 in a service show called "Skirts." It was directed by Arthur G. Brest, who was George K. Arthur in silent film days.

The stars were Ben Lyon and Bebe Daniels, one time Hollywood luminaries, now running a radio show in London.

Johanny Gale, director of reviews for London's Windmill theater, was stage director for the airforce show. He produced a souvenir picture of the cast today, showing the stars, director (then sergeant) Arthur and Hill.

The picture was made by a photographer for the airforce. "He was an experienced performer," said Gale. "He once told us he had done a fire eating act in America, but I think it was just for fun and not on the professional stage."

Maisie Cryer, the Windmill dance director, who once appeared with Will Rogers in the 1922 Ziegfeld Follies, said she taught Hill some dance routines for the 1943 army show.

"He did an act dressed in women's clothes, and with a big cigar. He was full of comedy and kept biting off the lighted end of the cigar," she recalled.

"He and the other boys from the army were all good trouperers."

She said Hill did his actual fire eating act in air forces uniform.

Airforce authorities said Hill listed his hometown as Philadelphia, but said he had no street address there.

JAMMED AIRCRAFT CRASHES; 47 DEAD

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, June 8—(AP)—A plane jammed with Puerto Rican men, women and children bound for the United States crashed in the Atlantic yesterday and 47 persons are missing and feared dead.

Officials said 75 persons, including a crew of five Americans, were aboard the two-motored C-46 plane. The U. S. Coast Guard reported 28 known survivors.

Nineteen of the passengers were small children or infants, and 19 were women. One American crewman, Al Cockrell of Pittsfield, Mass., is reported missing and feared dead.

The plane left San Juan a few minutes after midnight and two minutes later radioed back requesting permission to make an emergency landing. Then nothing more was heard from it. Officials said apparently it had trouble gaining altitude because of an adverse wind.

Run Into Police

AKRON, June 8—Two men accused of robbing an American Legion post almost ran into the arms of a policeman as they fled the post last night. One of the pair was captured but the other who had $318 taken in the robbery got away. The holdup occurred at the Howard Chapman Memorial post No. 625.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—The big grab today is for security.

Individual men want it. Nations want it. The world wants it.

And that is why, perhaps, men, nations and the world are all nervous, touchy, irritable. They all have the jitters—emotional as well as political and financial jitters.

EVERY PERSON and every group wants to feel safe from life's multiple disasters. It is as true of a railroad porter in Omaha as it is of a Wall street broker or that man in the Kremlin.

The broker looks under his bed to see if a Communist is lurking there. Joe Stalin looks to see if a capitalist spy is hiding under his crimson couch cover.

The lover worries whether his true love will stay true to him. The poor man worries whether his job will last. The rich man worries whether he can hold his riches, and he thinks the masses are leagued in a plot to take his money.

And all of them worry whether they can keep their youth, their beauty, their strength of their teeth—and none of them can.

Security isn't a goal of just the classes or the masses. It is the goal of all. The search for security is mankind's oldest quest, his eldest dream. He has sought it since he was exiled from the Garden of Eden.

BUT SECURITY is an odd thing. The faster you chase it the faster it flies from you. The more you want to be secure, the more insecure you feel. For security to the average man means keeping what he has—or getting what he hasn't. He wants to make himself a changeless island in a world of change. And that is rather hard to do on a globe where men are born, grow old and die.

Death is the final negation of the hope for security on earth. Heaven—and all races pray to a heaven of some kind—may be the positive answer. For this answer we must wait and yearn—and earn, if we are wise.

The one sure thing is there's no security while you're alive. And there never has been. Therefore it is foolish to expect it.

Kings and clowns lose their crowns or their sense of humor. And disease at last will take a lady in the highest castle as surely as it does the poorest work-worn woman in the lowest hovel.

War and famine, these have been always with us, too, twin nightmares that ruin our long dream of peace and plenty.

WILL BE MONTHS BEFORE TESTS PROVE AIRSHIP

B-36 Controversy May Not Be Settled On Ship "On The Fire" Now

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON, June 7—(AP)—The military high command figures it will be months before tests to determine the capability and possible vulnerability of the B-36 bomber can be fully completed.

The weapons system evaluation group—a military-civilian agency of the national military establishment has overall responsibility for the tests of the giant bomber's performance. The findings of the group will be reported to Secretary of Defense Johnson and to the joint chiefs of staff.

This is one of the first major assignments given the group, formed earlier this year. The directive to the agency said it was "to provide rigorous, unprejudiced and independent analyses and evaluations" of present and future weapons and the systems of combat in which they would be employed.

The case of the long range B-36 has become a matter of argument between the Air Force and the Navy and subject of inquiry by a congressional committee. Thus it was a logical subject for study by the weapons group.

Point Out Questions

Those familiar with the situation pointed out that the questions involved in the Air Force's B-36 are not only the mere flying ability of one type airplane used by one service but concern many related problems. These include defense against the use of possible similar type bombers by an enemy. Also, methods of detecting it by radar, of opposing it with intercepting fighters are involved.

From an offensive standpoint, there must be impartial determination of the ability of the bomber to cope with attacking fighters, its performance under a variety of climatic conditions, whether in some situations it might need fighter protection, and its ability to steal above a protected target from an unexpected quarter at high altitude.

To submit the bomber to tests under all these situations requires more than a mere mock duel between the B-36 and a single type of fighter, say defense experts. Thus there must be involved fighter aircraft of the air force as well as the Navy, radar detection nets operated by all three of the armed forces—Army, Navy and Air Force—and the ordnance branches of the services which design aircraft as well as anti-aircraft guns and rockets.

All of these are the weapons "system" which the evaluation group studies. The group is headed by Army Gen. Lt. Gen. John E. Hull, with the civilian research direction under Dr. Philip M. Morse. In it are representatives of each of the armed forces and civilian scientists.

GRANGES Butler

Butler grange will hold a good time party Friday evening, June 17.

The social committee is composed of Mrs. John Knutti, Mrs. Al Stoudt and Mrs. Joseph Vogelhuber.

Members discussed plans to sponsor a Boy Scout troop at last week's meeting.

A recent benefit netted the grange $138.

Entertainment included a vocal duet by Mrs. Jay Denny and Mrs. John Vogelhuber; readings, "Our Flag" and "Vegetable Garden," Mrs. Joseph Ward, and a stunt directed by Mrs. C. L. Brown.

Juveniles held a meeting with the master, Gail Brown, and the assistant matron, Mrs. John Vogelhuber, in charge.

Program of music and games entertained. Lunch was served.

Best age for most sports is between 25 and 30.

5 doctors prove this plan breaks the laxative habit

If you take laxatives regularly—here's how you can stop!
Because 5 New York doctors now have proved you may break the laxative habit. And establish your natural powers of regularity. Eighty-three per cent of the cases tested did it, so can you.

Stop taking whatever you now take. Instead, every night for one week take 3 Carter's Pills. Second week—one each night. Third week—one every other night. Then—nothing! Every day drink eight glasses of water; set a definite time for regularity.

Five New York doctors proved this plan can break the laxative habit.
How can a laxative break the laxative habit? Because Carter's Pills "unblock" the lower digestive tract and from then on let it make use of its own natural powers.

Further—Carter's Pills contain no habit-forming drug.
Break the laxative habit... with Carter's Pills... and be regular naturally.

When you're exercising, overwork, make you irregular temporarily—take Carter's Pills temporarily. And never get the laxative habit. Use Carter's Pills at any time, for 30 days. You'll be grateful the rest of your life.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON—(AP)—May be it's my arithmetic that's bad but you can't always make it add up: What members of congress say and what they do.

Take economy, for instance. Ever since January they've been talking of cutting government expenses. Now it's June. They've not cut yet. I'm beginning to wonder whether they'll cut at all this year.

Nobody's talked more about it, than the senators. But when it came to doing something about it, they voted almost all the way down the line to spend more money than the house. Example: For the treasury and post office departments—House, $3,072,817-903; the senate $3,113,068,503, or $40,250,690 more.

LABOR DEPARTMENT and federal security agency—House, $2,211,794,085; the senate, $2,409,827,265, or $198,033,180 more.

Agriculture department—House, $701,122,079; the senate, $723,083,249, or $21,961,170 more.

River, harbors and waterway development—House, $593,292,270; the senate, $751,440,690, or $158,148,420 more.

State, Justice and Commerce departments—House, $684,616,102; the senate, $671,782,281, cut by the senate of $12,833,821.

This last one was the only place where the senate, in voting money to run the government another year, voted less than the house.

Since both houses came up with different figures, none of the figures is final.

EASTMAN SHOWS NEW PROCESS ON COLORED PRINTS

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 8—(AP)—The Eastman Kodak company demonstrated today a process for making full color pictures from black and white negatives or color transparencies.

The new flexichrome process utilizes color dyes to convert a special photographic print into a full color picture. The dyes are applied with water color brushes but are true dyes rather than water color or oil paints, the company said.

Kodak said the new process was expected to prove of "tremendous value" to portrait and commercial photographers as well as to magazine, newspaper and advertising illustrators.

Such workers will not only be able to produce full color prints from any black and white negative but they also will be able to reproduce, in color, such subjects which for technical reasons are difficult to photograph with color film, the company said.

Here's how it works:

Prints are produced by printing the image on a special Kodak flexichrome stripping film. The silver in the film image is then bleached out and the image is dyed black. The emulsion carrying the dyed image is stripped from the film and transferred to a sheet of fixed-out photographic paper. When the paper and emulsion are dry, the print is colored by dyes which replace the black dye originally applied to the film.

This process, the company added, is more flexible than any previous color print-making because the colors in the print may be removed, altered or replaced at anytime.

No additional darkroom or special equipment is needed.

government experts figure it will cost the government $65 billion over the next 50 years.

But on the same day the house okayed the pension bill, it's rule committee—which has large control over what the house can vote on—hesitated about letting the housing bill come to a vote. This involves more billions.

Meanwhile, house members are still toying with the idea of giving themselves $3,000 a year extra for more clerks and $500 additional for things like telephone calls and telegrams.

DEPARTMENT OF SUGGESTION

There's a rule written down in the Ohio High School Athletic association books that says no scholastic football coach can instruct, talk or promote football training among his charges-to-be before Aug. 20.

There's no rule, however, that says the individual youngster, interested in making that football team in the fall, can't begin any time to prepare himself for that goal.

But there is an unwritten rule—that among coaches in any sport—that stipulates that the kid who is in top shape, anxious, a hard worker, willing to learn and truly desirous of a position on the team will nine times out of 10 get first crack at those varsity posts.

The rules and non-rules are fruit for some serious summer thought and consumption by Salem High's footballers-to-be.

Ben Barrett isn't out pushing football players to get in shape now. But he's going to be the first guy to know which ones did make that preparation when Aug. 20 roll around and the real work-outs begin.

So the guy who's sincerely determined to do a job in Salem's football program this year will do well to begin a few preparations on his own right now.

The varsity berths are going to be hard-gotten this year and the guy with the head start will be the smartest—and probably the happiest on the squad come August and September.

And, remember, fellows, only 33 of some 100 who turn out, are going to be included in the proposed training camp trip, if it develops as the Boosters hope.

CHINA MAINTAINS WINNING WAYS IN SOFTBALL CHASE

Three games in Class A softball Tuesday failed to produce any startling upsets, or any drastic changes in league standings.

The Salem China, front-runner at present to unseat the VFW from its perch atop the National league, maintained a winning way by edging the Igloo 12-2.

In the other National league fray the Lisbon VFW won 13-6 over Mullins, thereby improving its position a place.

In the only American league game the Democrats won 4-2 from the Sanitary and switched places and percentages in the standing with them. The Sanitary is now tied with the Amvets for fourth place.

As Stan Musial Goes, So Go Those Cardinals

National Loop Club Booming

Move Into Second Place, Half Game Behind The Brooks; Giants Lose

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
"As Stan Musial goes, so go the St. Louis Cardinals."

Never was a truer statement made.

Look at the record. Musial got off to a miserable start. So did the Cards. On May 24, just 15 days ago, St. Louis' three-time batting champ was hitting a puny .250. Accordingly, the Cardinals were mired in seventh place with a 12-17 won and lost record.

Since then, Stan the Man has rapped out 22 hits in 58 times at bat for a .379 batting average. Conformably, the Redbirds went on a tear, winning 13 of the 15 games.

Today, Musial is hitting a steadily progressive .301, and the surging Cardinals are in second place, only a half game away from the top.

The Redbirds whipped the New York Giants, 3-0, at the Polo grounds last night, and as might be expected, it was Musial who provided the big punch. Stan clubbed two homers off Monte Kennedy, his 10th and 11th of the season, to drive in all the runs.

Either one would have been enough for Southpaw Harry Brecheen. Harry, The Cat, looking more like the pitcher of 1948 than at any time this year, scattered five blows.

The victory moved the Cards past the Giants into second place, a half game behind the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Brooks took over undisputed possession of first place by trouncing Chicago, 7-1. The Giants dropped from from a first place tie to fourth place, a half game behind the Boston Braves, who nipped the Cincinnati Reds, 6-5. The Braves trail the Cards by three percentage points.

Southpaw Preacher Roe tamed the Cubs on six hits. He lost his shutout in the seventh when Andy Pafko cracked a home run, the 10th given up by Roe this season. The Dodgers collected 13 safeties off Dutch Leonard, Bob Chipman and Cal McLish. The most prodigious blow was Duke Snider's ninth homer.

The Braves tallied twice in the bottom half of the ninth to offset a one-run edge the Reds had built up in the top half of the inning. The winning run crossed the plate on a "prize boner" by Cincinnati outfielder Frank Baumholtz.

With one out, Al Dark sent a looping fly down the right field foul line, which Baumholtz caught in foul territory allowing Tommy Holmes to cross the plate with the winning run.

The Philadelphia Phils duplicated Boston's stunt by scoring two runs in the bottom half of the ninth to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-5, after the Bucs had counted once in the top half of the inning.

Detroit defeated the New York Yankees, 5-2, in the American league's only day contest, to cut the front-running Yankees' lead to five and a half games. Bob Swift's home run with a man on base highlighted a three-run fourth inning enabling Hal Newhouser to register his fifth victory. Ed Lopat was charged with the defeat, his first against five victories.

Larry Doby crashed two homers to lead the Cleveland Indians to a 13-11 slugfest victory over the Washington Senators. Eight pitchers saw action, with Satchel Paige getting credit for the victory. Joe Haynes was charged with the defeat.

BOONE A HITTER, TUESDAY NIGHT GIVES THE PROOF

He and Doby Clap Out Hits Galore As Indians Win Weird One

CLEVELAND, June 8—(AP)—Victors in two straight contests after the change to the "new look" which finds Manager Lou Boudreau at third base, the Cleveland Indians tonight met the Washington Senators in the finale of their three-game series.

Whether the Tribe has a fielder in Rookie Shortstop Ray (Ike) Boone may take time to determine, but after last night's 13-11 victory over the Senators, the club can be fairly sure it has a hitter.

Boone nearly stole the show in the wild three-hour game with four stinging hits including two triples. Not even Larry Doby, who crashed two homers, could surpass this.

The hitting of Boone and Doby along with another homer by Rightfielder Bob Kennedy were the main ingredients of the 15-hit Tribe attack. Most of the fireworks came in the riotous fourth inning when the Senators scored seven runs and the Tribe bounced back with five to tie the score 8-8. The Tribe clinched the game with four runs in the sixth.

Satchel Paige earned his second win of the campaign by allowing two hits in the final five innings. Starter Bob Lemon and two other Tribe hurlers had failed to stop the Nats before ancient Paige appeared. In all, the Nats got 13 bases on balls, but only eight hits.

Players from both benches scrambled to the field in the fourth inning when Joe Gordon moved toward Nat Pitcher Walter Masterson with fists clenched after being struck in the back by a pitched ball. Umpires and players kept the two apart as both squads milled about the field. No one was banished from the game, which was delayed 15 minutes. Masterson later was removed for a pinchhitter.

Law After Tribe's Flagpole Rooter

CLEVELAND, June 8—(AP)—The law tried to get Charley Lu- pica, the flagpole sitter, back to earth today. Charley didn't come down.

It was May 31 that Lupica, after a cafe argument, climbed a small platform above his place of business and said he would stay up there until the Cleveland Indians were in first place. They were in seventh place at that time. Ditto yesterday.

Capt. Leo Schamadan of the city sanitation police decided to- day the sitter was violating sanita- tion regulations.

"He uses a chemical contrivance which he lowers on a rope," said Schamadan. "It sounds too much like canal boat days to me."

"If we let Lupica up there, we'll have hundreds of people asking for permits to pitch tents in trees and camp in city parks. He doesn't have a camping license," said the captain.

Patrolman Elvin Burmeister went out to have words with Charley. The sitter wouldn't listen. Patrolman Burmeister decided the only ladder in sight was too flimsy, and retreated. He consulted Lupica's business partner, Ben De Marco. The latter said he would talk with city officials to see if there were some way to keep Charley on his perch.

The police were talking about getting a warrant and a fire ladder.

Ohio Edison, E. Palestine Seek Columbiana Contract

COLUMBIANA, June 8—Two bids were received by the board of public affairs Monday evening for providing electric energy for the municipality, the contract with the Ohio Edison having expired this spring. The two bidders are the Ohio Edison and the East Palestine municipal plant.

Accompanying the bids are schedules involving a lot of details, but the main points to be considered are the advance in rates by the Ohio Edison, which brings its current to the local distribution system, while the East Palestine bid is for current produced at the municipal plant there.

The contract with the Ohio Edison expired early this spring, but there has been no interruption of service pending action by the board of affairs and council.

The new contract offered by the Ohio Edison makes advances in rates which would amount to about $7,000 a year more for Columbiana consumers and necessitate a small upward revision of rates charged by the municipality. Rates in Columbiana are far below the average in this area by virtue of the town owning its distribution system.

The East Palestine bid would involve the construction and maintenance by Columbiana of a transmission line from the plant there.

Electric energy contracts heretofore have been for periods of ten years.

Tennis Tournament Planned

The meeting Monday evening was given over to group singing, a directors' meeting following.

Warren Man Speaks
William Kerr of Warren was the speaker at the meeting of the Rotary Club, Monday evening.

On the subject of "Images of Imagination," he spoke of word pictures, art, music and religion. He located some of the most famous art treasures and described some of the older and less known religions of the world. He was introduced by Homer Lehman, program chairman.

President elect William Knuth and Vice President-elect Allan White gave reports on the recent district convention in Canton. Hugh Dawson of East Cleveland is the new district governor.

Dr. F. R. Crowe of Salem was a visiting Rotarian.

Pre-School Clinic
The pre-school clinic will be held at the High school building Thursday, beginning with the kindergarten and first grade children at 9:45 a. m.

Valley Forge, Pa., To Be Site For Scouts' Jamboree

The Boy Scouts of America has selected Valley Forge, Pa., for its second national Scout Jamboree in 1950, according to word received by the Columbiana county council, Boy Scouts of America.

Over 30,000 Boy Scouts from every state and all U. S. territories will camp together from June 30 to July 6, 1950, on the site notable as the encampment of George Washington and his Continental Army from Dec. 19, 1777, to June 19, 1778.

More than 16 possible sites were inspected by the national council before the selection of the site was announced. Governor Duff of Pennsylvania has personally invited the Scouts to use this park which is owned and maintained by the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Scouts are expected to occupy 600 of the 2,033 acres in the park. Special ceremonies are anticipated for the 4th of July, when the Scouts will form on the parade ground used by Washington and his army.

Water lines will be laid and administrative tents will be set up for 32 sectional camps to accommodate a total of 40,780 Scouts and leaders.

Details of how many Scouts will be able to take part from the Columbiana council, and the cost and eligibility for Scouts to take part, will be announced as soon as information is available.

Plan Centennial Park Puppy Match

Plans have been completed for the Puppy Match on Sunday afternoon in Centennial park. It is sponsored by the Columbiana County Kennel club.

Entries may be made on the grounds with the deadline set at 1 p. m. Any purebred puppy under a year old is eligible, according to Henry Hurlburt, club president.

Ribbons will be awarded for placements. The judging will be informal but similar to a regulation dog show, with ribbons going to puppies placing first through fourth in the judges decision.

Ed Bezbeck, Pittsburgh dog handler, and Melvin York of the Salem Thumel Kennels, will serve as judges.

According to Hurlburt, puppies are being entered by out-of-town breeders. He added that local puppy owners are especially invited to enter the match where the show possibilities of the puppy can be determined by competent judges. He said that no experience or training is required as the owners will merely take the puppy into the ring so that the judges may survey the entry.

There is a small registration fee for each entry and the show is open to the public with no admission charge.

In charge of the match are Melvin York, show committee chairman, Dale Wilson, Dan MacDonald, Ray Middleton and Mrs.
Charles Clemensen.

The decimal system of counting came about because man learned to count on his 10 fingers.
